Yankee 3rd Baseman Alex Rodriguez

Issue 5 of the 2008 GELL Newsletter covers games played April 27 – May 3 and includes all summaries provided as of the issue deadline. Commissioners, please have all team summaries sent to you and review them for scoring accuracy before compiling them into the body of one email message and submitting them, along with division standings, to the newsletter editor (brendaandresen@msn.com) by noon each Thursday.

Thanks to all who have submitted photos for the newsletter! Please continue to send them, along with the team name and division, to the newsletter editor.

Players & Fellow Volunteers,

I am happy to report that the GELL season is past the halfway mark and there has been nary a glitch. Mother Nature has cooperated (for the most part) and our boys and our girls are having the time of their young lives, playing this great game of baseball.

I want to say a special thank you to the many volunteers that have invested so much of their time and their effort into the spring baseball season. This not only includes the coaches and their assistants, but also the parents who have jumped into the pool and assisted without having to be asked.

It is quite simple; without your help, GELL would not exist. I addressed this brief report to the players and “fellow volunteers”, given that I suspect that each and every GELL family has contributed in some way, shape or form this season.

Please continue your volunteer efforts and as always, do not wait to be asked ----
- just do it.

- GELL President Tim Riddle

Padres - 11

Yankees - 13

The Yankees scored 13 runs in the first two-innings and held-off a furious Padre rally to record the win by a score of 13-11. Chadd Catrambone led the offensive barrage for the Bombers with a three-run home run and an RBI single. Chadd also pitched the last two frames, relieving Jimmy Berutti, who pitched very-well over four innings and recorded his second win of the season. Colin Walsh got the Yankees started with a double to open the game and contributed with an RBI single in the second. Tim Clark also collected two hits as his bat continued to sizzle. The defensive play of the game was made by Jeff Hardy who made a fine running catch to snuff-out an early Padre rally. Andrew Scheffer, Bo Vitale, Jake Wallace collected solid base-hits and Graham Giangiulio contributed with a two-run double in the opening frame for the Bombers.

The Padres battled back but could not recover from the early deficit. Dan Chisena and Ryley Angeline provided the offensive highlights for the Padres as both played long ball with towering home runs.

Thursday May 1st

(Rescheduled from Saturday May 3rd)

Diamondbacks – 8

Padres - 5

The Dbacks and Padres played another close game on Thursday night with the Dbacks holding on for an 8 -5 win. The Dbacks were led by a great pitching effort from Bryan Hennigan and Brendan Brady, along with another stellar effort behind the plate by Jeff Zebrowski.

On offense the entire team contributed to the effort. Timely hits from the Collin and Blake McCourt and Tanner Peterson helped the Dbacks to an early lead. The hot bats of Jeff Zebrowski and Bryan Hennigan continued to smoke and helped the Dback to a well deserved 8 -5 victory.

The Padres could not recover from the Diamondback's offensive barrage in the home half of the second inning. Nick Amicon and Tyler Morgenthaler hit the ball hard while James Utley provided solid defense for the visitors.

Phillies – 5

Red Sox – 4

The Red Sox visited the Phillies for a Friday night contest. The fielding for the Phillies was impressive with Colby Hunt and Scott Hennelly coming up with big defensive plays. Nathan Hall had an RBI single and James Mackay had a double and scored two runs. The Phillies held a 4-1 lead into the top of the sixth but with two outs the Red Sox' Juan Diego Lopez hit a monster home run with two men on base to tie the game. With two outs in the bottom on the sixth the Red Sox's intentionally walked Michael Styer who then stole second. The intentional walk fired up the Phillies. Zack Greer, next up at bat, hit a screaming ground rule double to center, bringing in the winning run.

The Red Sox played solid team ball on Friday night against the Phillies and rallied to keep fans in their seats until the final pitch of the game. Juan Diego Lopez's game-tying, 3-run homerun in the top of the 6th inning was the Sox offensive highlight out the evening. Mitchell Cuzzolina, Trevor Andresen, and Michael Churchvara contributed critical defense that kept the game within reach to the end.

Saturday, May 3

Yankees Cubs (no score reported)

The Yankees held-on to defeat the Cubs in a well-played MR game. After a painful loss in a close game the first time they met the Red Sox this season, the Yankees were anxious to even the score. The Yankees got 4 quick runs in the first, but in a game that became a pitching duel, the Red Sox held them to only one more run in the bottom of the 5th. Yankees pitchers #3 Bryce Mastrog, #1 Will Hillegas and #2 Jake Wisely held up well too getting 13 strikeouts out of the 15 outs in the game. Yankees game ball went to #1 Will Hillegas who in addition to good pitching and one of only a handful of hits in the game, was involved in the only 2 non-K outs in the game, getting shortstop Daniel Scheffer's throw at first base in a close play in the 2nd and catching a high fly ball to end the 3rd inning. Final score Yankees 5, Red Sox 5.

Ethan Andresen, Jack Hollis, and Connor Birzes joined the slugfest with multiple RBI hits in the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th innings. Birzes collected a total of 4 RBI for the evening. Andresen also brought tenacity to the base paths and collided with the Phillies catcher as he barreled toward the plate in an effort to steal home. Defensive highlights were many, including well-executed outs delivered by Stephen Edwards, Jake Walter, Hollis, and Andresen.

Yankees 11 vs. Phillies 13

The Yankees started out battling from behind in this game allowing the Phillies 5 runs in the first. The Yankees were only able to produce 4 runs through the fourth inning while the Phillies continued to score. The 5th started with the Yankees down 13 to 4. Yankees closer #2 Jake Wisely took the mound and quickly struck out the first three Phillies batters. This raised the spirits on the Yankees bench as they came out in the bottom of the 5 and batted around the order plus 4 scoring 7 runs, but it was not quite enough, resulting in tough loss. Yankees game ball went to #2 Jake Wisely who in addition to pitching a perfect closing inning, scored 3 runs for his three times at bat and had 6 stolen bases including a steal home in the second. Jake also had a highlight film play at shortstop in the first, fielding a hot grounder then throwing a bullet strike to first baseman #1 Will Hillegas. Also of note was #6 Kevin Cherry who had 2 hits, 2 runs and 4 stolen bases. Final score Yankees 11, Phillies 13.

Orioles 11 Diamondbacks 11

The Orioles and D'Backs battled to an 11-11 tie on Saturday. Zach Block and Ethan Andresen led the Orioles offense by reaching base four times. Block, Andresen and Jack Hollis scored three runs each in the contest. The Orioles also saw the pitching debut of Jake Walter, complemented by a great effort from the rest of the pitching staff. Drew Britt and Sal Grignano answered got the call up, and played well for the O's – thanks guys! Zach Block received the game ball for his efforts, positive attitude, and sportsmanship.

GEYA Cardinals 0 Downingtown Phillies 13

The Cardinals woke up early to travel to Downingtown Little League to take on their Phillies team. The Cards batters scattered 10 hits over 6 innings including two each by Jacob Dewey, Benjamin Smith and Shane McEvoy. Unfortunately, the rally caps did not work as the Red Birds folded to the Downingtown Phillies 13 to 0.

GEYA Yankees vs Downingtown Blue Jays

The Yankees hosted the Downingtown Blue Jays on Saturday (5/3) at Springton Manor. The Blue Jays fielded an excellent team both offensively and defensively. Many of the Yankees well hit balls were turned into outs by the fine fielding of the Blue Jays. The Yankees offense was led by Michael Toler, Paul Marone, Sal Grignano and Calvin Hays. Michael hit particularly well from the leadoff position and was awarded the game ball.

Defensively the Yankees were led by Paul Marone, Sal Grignano, Calvin Hays and Nate Majer. Paul, Calvin and Nate all assisted on put outs at first base on ground balls.

Diamondbacks vs. Phillies

The fifth game of the season for GEYA Phillies with Diamondbacks was a rollercoaster but Phillies prevailed at the end. All team members contributed to an excellent batting show in the 1st, 3rd and 5th innings with Jake Gise starting the batting line with a strong hit. Highlights of the game included a very strong batting by Jonathan Maino, Chase Sanders, Tim Aivado and Zach Reigel. Fielding successes against the hard-hitter Diamondbacks included awesome performance by Caitlyn Grubb at the 2nd base and by Ankur Bamezai at the mound. Zach Reigel and Ankur Bamezai tagged the runner at the 2nd and 1st base in the 1st and 2nd inning respectively. It was thrilling to see Zach Reigel's skill as a Catcher which generated plenty of cheers from the stand and he was awarded the game ball by our Coach Doug. Efforts by Coach Bill and Mr. Maino in helping out deserve special mention.

Red Sox vs. Rockies

The Rockies played host to the Red Sox Saturday and both teams came out swinging like prize fighters. The Rockies offensive charge was led by Andrew Engel and John Weissflog who had 4 hits a piece. Andrew ended the contest with a bases-clearing double to deep center. On defense, Jake Pirhalla was on the pitchers mound in the first inning and made two fine plays resulting in outs. Later in the game, Jake, playing second base this time, hooked up with John Weissflog at first base for another key putout. Zach Robinson (a.k.a. Charlie Hustle) and Jake Pirhalla received the game balls for their excellent efforts. Great job, Rockies!!

Mets vs. Athletics

The Mets showed continued improvement this week as they took on the Athletics. Nick Trasatti consistently stopped the ball and delivered it to 1st base. Sara Ryan very nearly caught a deep, pop-fly in center field. No one had a bigger smile than Evan Patrick as he stopped the ball in the infield and then later received the game ball.

The Athletics came out swinging against the Mets on Saturday...Brendan Campbell hit the ball hard, leading the way for the rest of the A's. George Snyder, recipient of the game ball, had cat-like reflexes making play after play on the pitcher's mound, and Anisha Pal had an all around outstanding performance in the field and at the plate, making crisp throws from third base, and making solid contact at the plate. The A's continue to get better each time out - what will next week bring?

Diamondbacks vs. Cubs

In the Diamondbacks second meeting with the Cubs...early season injuries are starting clear out of the way to allow for some serious T-Ball! Thomas Kent Jr. connects for a line drive through the infield to advance the runners and bring in a two runs for the D-Backs. Matthew Laliberte gave the ball a ride and out runs the play at first base. Luke Najim received the game ball this week for playing out the game despite a skinned knee. Chad Frame and Gabi Adler shared the catcher's spot protecting home plate with numerous tag outs. The D-Backs showed some real teamwork and dedication to the game, they would play all day even if there wasn't a snack after the game.

The Cubs and Diamondbacks played a great game on Saturday! The Cubs' strength at the plate was evident with a smash hit down the first base line by Preston Harper. Jack Barron and Evan Bogacki had a great day in the field. Evan Bogacki made a nice scoop to get the put-out at first base and Jack Barron had some outstanding stops in the field. The game ended with game balls given to Jack Barron and Michael Alberton for their great teamwork in the field.

White Sox sluggers put on their best game faces.

White Sox vs. Phillies

The Phillies visited the White Sox where they demonstrated what they learned in practice. You can tag in this game☺. Outfielder Chad Britt had a couple backhand tags out on runners going to second while a determined Gianna La Torre stopped everything coming her way as the pitcher and delivered well thrown balls to first. Gianna showed her girl power as she hit the ball well inning after inning. All the Phillies clicked as a team today and the Game Ball went to Gianna La Torre. Great job G!!

Saturday, May 3

Cubs vs. Mets

The Cubs and the Mets played an exciting game on Saturday! On the offensive side, the Cubs' had some great hits by Ryan Darlington, Nate Barker and Nicholas Graybill. The Cubs also played a terrific defensive game, with great plays in the field by Tyler Robinson and Evan Bogacki. The game came to a close with game balls given to Ryan Darlington for his great hitting and Evan Bogacki for his excellent fielding. Great game Cubs!

On a day that felt more like late winter than early spring, the Mets began the game with some strong hits all the way down the batting order. Sara Ryan did a fine job at 1st base and Josephine Condon positioned herself almost intuitively in the infield. Owen Lawlor showed an increasing sense of confidence at bat. Brendon Arcara received the game ball. The Mets put forth another great team effort.

The Tee Ball Phillies listen as Coach Bill LaTorre outlines their strategy against the Braves.

Phillies vs. Braves

PLAY BALL! And the Phils did just that as they hosted the Braves and continued to hone their skills. Lefty Alex Viscomi wound up at bat for some contact with the little white ball to send it far and away as he zipped to first. Matthew (Mattie) Walter came on strong as the first baseman with one, two, three put outs at first. Mattie also clocked a couple balls while at bat and received the Game Ball for having a great game. GO PHILLIES!!

Tee Ball League (continued)

Saturday, May 3

Athletics vs. Pirates

May 3rd started off a cloudy, chilly morning, but the rain held off, and the A's squared off against the Pirates. Jack Powell looked strong on the pitcher's mound, while Logan Mahon took charge of first base with some sure handed glove work, making sure key plays were made. Michael Murray brought his "A" game, making crisp contact at the plate and showing off his blazing speed on the bases. Brendan Campbell, the game ball recipient, made a stellar defensive play, stopping a two-hopper smashed right at him, not hesitating to make a good throw to first. Everyone did a GREAT job as the team is really starting to understand the principles of the game. Keep it going A's!

Diamondbacks vs. Yankees

Matthew Laliberte and Thomas Kent were both recipients of the game ball this past week for their outstanding demonstration of skill and sportsmanship against the Yankees.

White Sox vs Red Sox

The White Sox played another terrific game on Saturday against the Red Sox. The White Sox showed tremendous teamwork on and off the field. Colin McLaurin was rewarded a game ball for his excellent plays in the field. Ryan Fick received another game ball for his clutch hitting. Coach Shelton and Coach Hall are proud of the White Sox and have noticed definite improvement all around. Great Job White Sox!
