Cardinals 12
Red Sox 9

The Cardinals won their first playoff game against the Red Sox. 8-3. Colin McNabb had a great evening on the mound for the Cards and TJ Cliggett relieved in the sixth. Scoring for the Cardinals in the first were Billy Caldwell who had a single followed by Graham Giangiulio's RBI single. In the second, Colin McNabb hit a ground rule double to center field. The third inning was explosive for the Cards. TJ Cliggett's had an RBI single, Chadd Catrambone doubled with an RBI, Colin McNabb tripled and was credited with two RBI's, Kyle O'Brien had a single with an RBI, Ryan Knight singled with an RBI, and Billy Caldwell had an RBI. The Cardinals played a great defensive game. The Red Sox loaded the bases with no outs in the second inning but the Cardinals held them to no runs that inning.

Thursday June 7, 2007

Dodgers 1
Yankees 3

Max Truchan and Pat Krall combined to limit the hard-hitting Dodgers to just one run. Max and Pat also drove-in all three of the Yankee runs, as Max tripled to right-center in the fourth to bring home Liam Dilenschneider who had doubled. Pat Krall then singled to bring Max home for the Yankees' third run.

Saturday June 9, 2007

Dodgers 6
Red Sox 7

The Red Sox hung on to beat the Dodgers 7-6 in a playoff battle. The Sox benefited from some great defense and timely hitting to edge the Dodgers.

Cardinals 6
Tigers 12

The Cardinal had a tough 12-6 loss to the Tigers. Ryan Markle pitched for the Cardinals with Kyle O'Brien relieving in the sixth. Scoring for the Cardinals in the second was Colin McNabb with a double followed by stealing home, and a bunt single by Kyle O'Brien who also scored a run. In the fifth, Kyle O'Brien walked and eventually scored. The Cards rallied in the sixth scoring three but it was not enough. Billy Caldwell had a bunt single and stole home, TJ Cliggett singled and scored on Colin McNabb's RBI, and Ryan Markle walked and stole home.

Tigers' bats were on fire throughout the game with doubles and singles by Scott Schier, Dan Kiely, and Kerry Angeline and singles by Greg LaRosa, Jeff LeBrowski, and Ralph Rowe. But the highlight of the game was a 3 run, over-the-fence home run Ian Hanss in the 3rd inning. Good pitching by Ralph Rowe, Scott Schier, and Steven Sommar held the Cardinals to 6 runs. With the Cardinals rallying in the 6th, a runner attempted to score from 3rd on a wild pitch. Catcher Dan Kiely made a quick recovery and got the ball to Steve Sommar to record the last out of the game.

Yankees 9
Phillies 5

Christian Hahn pitched 3+ strong innings and held-off a very talented Phillies team. Pat Krall pitched the final two frames to save the victory for the Yankees. Max Truchan continued his hot hitting as he went two for three with a long home run to center in the first and a two-run double in the third. Andrew Pilone also homered to center (ruled a ground-rule double, but after further review, it was "out of here") in the third. The Yankee offense received a big boost on singles by Jim Acee, CJ Winand and by Andrew Scheffer.

The #1 seeded Phillies fell to the #4 seeded Yankees 5 - 9 in a playoff game at Hickory Park. Despite pitcher Bryan Hennigan's quick work, Evan Hermans terrific centerfield catch, and a double play in which Hennigan combined with Trev Andresen in the first two innings, the Phillie defense fell apart in a 3rd inning that let the Yankees score 5 runs. After Thomas Wilson and Aaron Kirk ignited a 4-run rally to get back in the game in the 4th, the Phillies couldn't break through a tough 5th and 6th inning Yankee defense.

Monday June 11, 2007

Cardinals 5
Phillies 6

The Phillies bested the Cardinals 6 - 5 with a dramatic game-winning bottom of the 6th-inning blast beyond left field by Bryan Hennigan. That hit, coupled with Ian Nanni's 9th homerun of the season, typified the Phillies tenacity over the course of the season. In support of Trev Andresen's efficient pitching the Phillie defense allowed just 1 run in the first 4 innings of play. Josh Toler's lunging stop at 2nd base in the 3rd inning and Michael Styer's 3rd base snag in the 4th were defensive highlights.

Tuesday June 12, 2007

Yankees 9
Tigers 8

The New York Yankees beat a very tough Detroit Tigers team 9-8 to gain a bye in the playoffs and throw the Tigers into the tough lower playoff brackets.

Tigers fell behind early in the game and trailed by 5 going into the bottom of the 6th. But the Tigers, known for impressive late inning rallies, staged another one in the 6th inning, scoring 4 runs. However, they came up short, leaving the tying run on 2nd base.

Wednesday June 13, 2007

Red Sox 13
Phillies 9

The Red Sox defeated the Phillies 13 -9 on Wed night. The game was a back and forth battle with both teams jumping out to leads only to be caught. The Red Sox received excellent pitching from their 4 horseman and finally pulled ahead for good in the 6th for the win.

The #3 seed Red Sox ended the #1 seed Phillies playoff hopes and season with a 13 - 9 victory fueled by 4th and 6th inning firepower. The Phillies took an early 2-run lead and led by 4 going into the 4th when the defensive wheels fell off and 7 Red Sox runs crossed the plate. After battling in back to a 1-run lead in the 5th behind Ian Nanni's 10th home run of the season and effective hitting and baserunning, the Phillies couldn't stop 5 more Red Sox runs in the top of the 6th. Despite the loss, the Phillies celebrated a season that brought success through team effort.

Thursday June 14, 2007

Red Sox 14
Tigers 3

The Red Sox defeated the Tigers 14 -3 to move into the finals. The Sox played their best all around game of the year and every member of the team contributed to the victory. The team received excellent pitching and the bats came alive with every member of the team reaching base.

Saturday June 16, 2007

Yankees 4
Red Sox 6

The Red Sox faced very strong Yankee pitching but hung on to defeat the Bombers 6-4 creating a do-or-die face-off between these two teams. The Sox continued their strong team play at the plate and in the field.

Monday June 18, 2007

Yankees 2
Red Sox 9

If it had to come down to one game what better than a Playoff tiebreaker between the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox. Both teams fought from the first out to the last out. But, in the end, Boston overcame the Evil Empire to take the Championship by a score of 9-2.

Major League Blue Division

Major Blue Results for week ended 6/9/07 – Playoff Week 1

Lynx 7
Sidewinders 2

The Lynx took an early lead with 2 runs in the 1st, but Sidewinders' batters Mason Murphy and Matt Evans answered with hits, which brought Murphy home for the Sidewinders' first run. The following Sidewinders' fielding efforts in the 2nd and 3rd kept the Lynx at 2 runs: a clean snag by shortstop Brandon Hall to Jeff Hardy at 2nd base, a grab and put-out at 1st by Evans, quick reacting by second baseman Jeff Quake and throw back to starting catcher Nick Bradley, 2 strike-outs by Kenny Jarema, and a put-out from catcher Dylan Channell to Ryan Cummings on an attempted steal to 2nd. The 4th inning saw one more run for each team with Jarema scoring by stealing the bases after a getting a walk to 1st. Things took an unfortunate turn for the Sidewinders in the 5th as the Lynx tacked on 4 more runs to their score. Tyler Buban got on base with a hit to start the Sidewinders' turn at bat, but was tug out when attempting to steal 2nd base. The Lynx got the next batter on a pop up, and with 2 outs, game MVP Channell hit a single up the middle to keep the ember of hope burning. Luke Allen then kept it lit with a walk and steal to 2nd, but it wasn't to be for the Sidewinders this time, as the Lynx got a strikeout to end the game.

Raptors 4
Thunder 5

Playoff baseball was in the air as the Thunder and Raptors went 7-innings before a winner was decided. The Raptors started strong scoring twice in the first inning and one in the fourth inning. Meanwhile, Brad Jewett was stellar on the mound for the Raptors, facing only 10 batters through the first 3-innings. After the Raptors added another run in the top of the fourth to take a 3-0 lead, the Thunder came storming back with 3-runs in the bottom of the 4th to tie the game. Johnny Seitz, Dominic Riccio and Nick Amicon all had big hits in the inning. After a scoreless 5th and 6th inning for both teams, and with continued strong pitching from Jewett and from Thunder pitchers Steven Lancello and Nick Amicon, the Raptors broke through with a run in the top of the seventh to take a 4-3 lead. Nick Amicon was able to get out of the inning with a big strikeout, stranding Raptor runners on second and third. The Thunder came storming back again in the bottom of the seventh. A leadoff single by Nick Amicon, followed by a walk from Scott Hennelly set the stage for Jake Gray, who lined an 0-1 pitch into left field, scoring Nick Amicon from second. Scott Hennelly then tried to take third base, and was able to score the winning run when the throw to third sailed into left field. None of the late game heroics would have been possible however, if not for the great play in left field from Dan Chisena, who made three wonderful catches in the last two innings, keeping the score close enough for the Thunder to finally prevail in the bottom of the seventh.

Lynx 5
Timber Rattlers 6

Coach Bill Schmitt's Lynx team gave the top-seeded Timber Rattlers everything they could handle. After holding the visitors scoreless in the top of the first, the Rattlers struck for three in the bottom of the opening frame with Lil' Pappie drawing a full count walk, and then singles by Power Train and Lil' Hitman. The Lynx bats came alive in the top of the third. After a line drive out to the shortstop by Jimmy Beruti, Eric Wan led the hit parade with a hard single up the middle. Connor ("Pizza Man") Roberts then delivered a line drive to move the runner. David Lamison hit a scorcher to centerfield where a heads up defensive play by Colin Walsh got Roberts on an 8 - 6 force out. D.J. McCloy plated the third run of the inning for the visitors. The fourth inning saw each team scoring two, with Patrick Callaghan and Alec Petrillo scoring for the Lynx, the latter run being driven in on an RBI by Andrew Kramer. The Timber Rattlers added their two in the bottom of the fourth on runs by The Blaster and Lil' Pappie on an exciting steal of home to tie the game at five. Rattlers relief pitcher Matt ("Hollywood") Petruccio got the Lynx out in four batters in the top of five setting the stage for the home nine heroics. Joey ("The Hitman") Madden opened the final frame with a double down the left field line, stole third on a passed ball, and then came home on Jake ("The Cat's") hard grounder to the mound.

Thunder 13
Mudcats 6

Good things happen when the top of your line-up can consistently reach base. And that is exactly what happened on Wednesday evening as Johnny Seitz, Colby Hunt, Dominic Riccio and Nick Amicon of the Thunder reached base all 12 times and scored 9-runs as the Thunder beat the Mudcats 13-6. Ian Merriman also had a breakout game for the Thunder with a walk, single and a double. And Dan Chisena played another strong game in left field making another tough catch look easy, only to top off his night with a 3-run homer in the 4th inning. Scott Hennelly pitched a fabulous game for the Thunder, giving up 1-run over 3 and 2/3rds innings. Steven Lancello finished the game for the Thunder in his usual fashion - throwing nothing but strikes! And finally, Jake Wallace made a great play in center field in the last inning. After slipping just before attempting to make a catch and having the ball hit him square in the chest, Jake was able to pick himself up, find the ball and throw the Mudcat runner out at second base. Congratulations to the Thunder for a great effort and to the Mudcats for not giving-up after being down 13-1.

Sidewinders 5
Mudcats 7

Sidewinder Brandon Hall kept the Mudcats from adding to an early lead with an awesome catch in centerfield. With the snakes down by 2 in the 3rd, Nick Bowns and Kenny Jarema were waiting on the bases for the perfect hit, which slugger Mason Murphy willingly supplied with a power triple bringing them around to tie the game. The Mudcats stayed quiet for the bottom of the 3rd. The top of the 4th gave the lead to the Sidewinders when Ryan Cummings, who singled then stole his way to 3rd, was brought home by an RBI hit from Jeff Quake. Unfortunately, the Mudcats decided to scratch and claw their way to a solid lead in the bottom of the 4th with several strong hits, but Cummings got 3 strike-outs in a row to give the Sidewinders their last chance for a come back. Hall started off with a walk, and after one out, Jimmy McCarthy and Nick Bowns also got on with walks. Jarema's hard hit to the short stop brought Hall in to score, but the Cats got McCarthy on the force-out for the 2nd out. With the game on the line, the Sidewinders just weren't able to pull it off as the Cats pitcher got the last out to end the Winders' season.

Raptors 8
Lynx 2

The Raptors defeated the Lynx today by a score of 8-2 behind the strong pitching of Brad Jewett and fine defense of his fielders. John Belbin picked up the save in the last inning. John Henry Suelzer had a key 2 out hit in the first inning, which knocked in 2 runs.

Thunder 5
Timber Rattlers 6

In a rematch of last year's Minor League Championship Game, the Rattlers and the Thunder met in this year's Major Blue Winner's Bracket Finals on Saturday afternoon on Hickory #2. Playing to a standing room only crowd, Coach John Gray's Thunder team wasted no time in the top of the first inning. After ground outs by their number one and two hitters, the Thunder loaded the bases on three consecutive walks, setting the stage for Jake Gray's RBI single up the middle plating two runs for the visitors. The Timber Rattlers struck back like lightning in the bottom of the first on consecutive doubles by The Crusher and The Blaster. A spectacular play by the visitors led to The Blaster being called out stealing home eliciting a huge groan from the partisan first base stands. The teams traded runs back and forth with a huge contribution by "The Boys" at the bottom of the Timber Rattler line-up in the home third with The Cat leading off with a single up the middle setting the stage for Fran ("Bang-Bang") Kinniry's ground rule double all the way to (and under) the left field fence. Thunder "Ace" pitcher Nick Amicon came up big in the bottom of the fifth, striking out the Rattlers with the scoreboard showing a 3 - 3 tie. The fans were on the edges of their seats as Colby Hunt singled to lead off the Thunder sixth. Amicon continued the hit fest with a single, but then was forced out at second base by centerfielder Lil" Hitman on another single up the middle by Scott Hennelly for the second out. A couple of errors later and the Thunder had bases loaded with two outs when Jake Wallace took his base on balls to bring home another run giving the Thunder a 5 - 3 lead. It was do-or-die time again for the home Rattlers who came off a bottom of the fifth victory over the Lynx midweek. With one out in the bottom of the sixth, Matt Young hung tough earning a walk and moving to second base when The Crusher got on base. After a single by The Blaster with one across, the stage was set with Power Train in the box with the game on the line . . . runners on second and third . . . two out . . . Rattlers down by a run . . . count at 2 - 2 . . . he swings . . . he connects . . . a line drive single up the middle plating two for an exciting come-from-behind victory for the red team.

Major Blue Results for week ended 6/9/07 – Playoff Week 2

Raptors 13
Mudcats 4

Raptors 12
Thunder 5

Thunder 10
Timber Rattlers 9

With their backs against the wall and having to take 2 straight games from the Timber Rattlers, the Thunder won round one on Friday night 10-9. After a scoreless 1st inning, the Thunder struck for 3 runs in the second. After Nick Amicon grounded out to 3rd to start the inning, Jake Gray singled, followed by a single by Jake Wallace and a walk by Dan Chisena to load the bases. After a strikeout of Andrew Kelly, Ian Merriman stepped to the plate in what turned out to be a very interesting sequence. Jake Gray scored on a passed ball, but the throw from the catcher to the pitcher went into the infield grass allowing another Thunder runner to score. Then the return throw to the catcher sailed to the backstop, which enabled Dan Chisena to score all the way from first base. From there, the Thunder were able to add 3 more runs in the 4th and 4-runs in the 5th to build a 10-0 lead going into the bottom of the 5th. And that is when the wheels just about fell off the bus for the Thunder. After Colby Hunt (who pitched 4 1/3rd innings of scoreless ball) recorded the first out, he was replaced by Nick Amicon. Then a single and 10 (yes 10) walks and 5 pitchers later, the Timber Rattlers had cut the score to 10-9 and had the bases loaded with 2-outs before Dom Riccio (who had not thrown a pitch all season) came in to record the final out and save the game for the Thunder. Scott Hennelly had a strong game both at the plate (with 3-hits and a run scored) and behind the plate, Jake Gray had 3-hits and 3 very important RBI's in the last inning, and Jake Wallace and Dan Chisena each reached base all 3-times at bat. Andrew Kelly scored a huge run in the 4th inning, which turned out to be a very important run. Colby Hunt, playing with a personal email in his back pocket from Curt Shilling, pitched his best game of the season holding the Timber Rattlers scoreless through 4 1/3 innings giving up 5-hits and striking-out 8. The Thunder and Timber Rattlers play for the championship on Saturday.

Timber Rattlers 0

Playing in their 3rd game in 4-days, the Thunder entered the championship game very short on pitching. To combat the Timber Rattlers fresh and numerous arms, the Thunder needed to rely on 2-pitchers, both with very different styles. Steven Lancello started the game for the Thunder in an attempt to keep the Timber Rattlers off-balance with his speed. Steven throws strikes, but is not overpowering. And he had the Timber Rattlers swinging a little early in the first 3-innings - and he faced only 14 batters over 3 innings of work, holding the Timber Rattlers scoreless. Meanwhile, the Thunder were having difficulty keeping up with the speed of Cary Angeline, and Cary and Colin McCourt held the Thunder hitless through the first 4-innings. However, the Thunder were able to squeeze a run across in the 4th on a few walks and a fielders choice, but exploded for 4-hits in the 5th inning and added 2-more runs. Nick Amicon came in to relieve Steven Lancello in the 3rd and recorded the final 2-outs of the inning. Nick then proceeded to allow only 1 baserunner over the final 2-innings and the Thunder came away with a 3-0 victory. Ian Merriman came-up huge in the top of the 5th, hitting a rocket to first base which inadvertently hit the Timber Rattlers first baseman. As the play continued, Ian was able to make it to 3rd base and later scored to add an insurance run. Scott Hennelly had another strong game behind the plate, Dom Riccio did his usual stellar job at first base, Nick Amicon made a great play from short and finished strong on the mound, Steven Lancello gave the Thunder a chance by starting the game strong on the mound, and Dan Chisena made another big catch in left field. And even though this was a total team effort, special recognition must go to Johnny Seitz. Johnny, hitting in the last spot in the order was able to reach base twice and knocked-in the 2nd Thunder run. But as importantly, Johnny made 2 great plays in the field, one of them while in center field which saved 2-runs and possibly 3. Congratulations to both teams for a well played final game, and a huge congratulations to the Thunder for a great season and a wild final month in which they went 9-2!

Minor League Division

Highlights from Playoff Game, June 6th

The Yankees continued to roll in the post season with an second round win against the Phillies posting a 15-1 win on the board. Jake Cerullo and Tucker Rolen split the first two innings and Brian Kelly cleaned up in the fourth. All three were tough to hit, with Cerullo and Kelly throwing heat and Rolen pitching the corners. Offensively everyone hit the ball all game long with hits by 10 of 12 Yankee batters. John Geiger broke out of a late season slump with a hard rip in the 2nd inning pushing across the 5th run of the inning to give the Yanks a lead they wouldn't give up. Bryce Mastrog showed his speed legging out a hit in the third, which led to another 5 run inning for the Bronx Bombers.

Rookie League

Monday June 4

Cardinals

In another exciting come-from-behind win, the Cardinals topped the Marlins 5 – 4 in pre-tournament play on Monday evening. Ethan Andresen was awarded the game ball for offensive and defensive hustle, including a tremendous leap from the pitcher's mound to make the catch just before it hit the ground a rob a Marlin batter of a base hit. Cardinals' bats were swinging and play in the field was aggressive as both teams performed well in the tightly contested game. Here are the notes for the newsletter from Wednesday June 6 game against Diamondbacks:

Wednesday, June 6

Devil Rays

Zach Lee had an incredible 2nd inning playing first base where he single handedly snagged three hard ground balls and raced to tag first to make three outs for the team. Zach also had a stellar game at bat where he lined a shot into centerfield earning a stand up double.

Andrew Pollack also had an All-Star game when in the 3rd inning he smacked a grounder down the 3rd base line. Andrew also had a great defensive game. While playing shortstop, he knocked down a hard hit shot, bare handed the ball and tossed it to second to force an out.

Red Sox

The Red Sox wrestled the Tigers this week in the last regular season game. We saw some strong pitching by Fastball Nick Calvaresi, Giant John Toler, No-Nonsense Nick Strange and Gusto Griffen White. Zany Zach Reigel helped out on the mound to finish the second inning by striking out two Tigers. Griffen had a great snag in the field and Nick C. made 2 huge catches combining the first with a double play!! But the main event was at home where the boys were really swinging their bats!! Nick C. had a beautiful single bringing in Giant John. And Mighty Michael Daulerio cracked not one, but two doubles at bat!! No-Nonsense Nick S. landed a single with bases loaded, fired another right at their pitcher, who unfortunately caught it, and ended the game with a monster hit driving Alex and Sean Fanelli home. Heavy-Hitter Hunter Donia played solid all around and Jammin' Joey Acee was a base stealing machine, which earned him the game ball.

Friday, June 8

Sox/Tigers

The Red Sox tangled with the Tigers in the heat of the jungle Friday night for a 5-inning playoff game. Zany Zachary Reigel hunted down the Tigers from the mound firing strong pitches to quickly put the Sox on the offensive. The hits were slow starting, but came after Fastball Nick Calvaresi struck out his 3 Tigers. Speedball Sean Fanelli smacked one to center field bringing in the first run. No-Nonsense Nick Strange slammed one right to the pitcher; Giant John Toler cracked it to first base and Zany Zach made an exciting slide into home. We saw Nick S. take down another 3 Tigers, and then Mighty Michael Daulerio bounced one to the pitcher. Amazing Alex Fanelli took to the hill to strike out 2 and Gusto Griffen cleanly fielded a grounder tagging first for the out. But the biggest thriller was a rundown between Griffen on first base and Michael on second... they almost got him! Alex drove one to second and Sean popped up. The Sox had lots of pitchers the last inning starting with Michael, Nick S., Sean and Griffen and Giant John, as catcher, dove for the runner stealing home! The Sox held tight with the Tigers until that last inning for a great final game to finish an awesome season!

Saturday, June 9

Cardinals/Dodgers

The Dodgers won a thriller today 20-19 to advance to the Championship game.

The Cardinals scored 7 runs in the top of the last inning to take a 19-11 lead, but the Dodgers answered with 8 runs to win 20-19.

The Dodgers were led by Max Savidge's 3 hits including a double, and Danny Amicon and Justin Gallagher who had 2 hits each.

Trent Mason made several nice plays in the field including a one handed scoop throw to catcher Connor Kloss for the put out at home to stop a Cardinal rally in the 2nd inning. Nick Grignano and Dustin Fisher also had RBI hits for the Dodgers.

Yankees

Hit, Hit, Hit was the protocol of Saturday's game when the Yankees faced the Braves for the last game of their season. A few of the Yankees' players, Scott Jewett and Jack Ford, were willingly traded to play with the Braves to cover for a few missing players. The teams played both a strong offense and defense. Sawyer May made a hit that was worthy of a game ball. Other strong offense skills were performed by Max deCarville, Tim Campbell, William Latore and Charlie Cliggett. Sean Oates played a strong third base, while James May, Thomas Waite and Dylan Sterlacci also demonstrated strong defensive skills.

"This has been a great season with a great group of boys. I have seen significant improvement with each and every player on this team. If I can keep these boys for the next few years, we'll have an unbeatable team. It was a pleasure coaching this group!" -- Coach Jewett

Sunday, June 10

Dodgers/Phillies

The Rookie League championship game was played on Hickory 1--the "big field". The Dodgers and Phillies played championship-caliber baseball in a slugfest with the Phils prevailing. Congratulations to all coaches and players in the Rookie League!

Are you ready for some Fall Ball?

Registration begins on July 1, 2007

All players ages 8 and older are eligible

More information will be available at www.geyasports.org or you can email questions to fallball@geyasports.org.

The GEYA Baseball fun doesn't end in June. Fall Ball is a fun and relaxed atmosphere where our kids can continue to develop their baseball skills. The fall season begins with practices in mid-August. Games are played from early September until the end of October. Most of the games are played against other leagues in our district – including Lionville, West Chester and Kennett – and will involve some travel to games.

We hope to see you in the fall!
