Major League Red Division

Cardinals 4
Yankees 7

Pat Krall pitched a brilliant final four innings for the Yankees, striking out ten of the thirteen batters he faced as the Bombers came out on top with a final score of 7-4. Max Truchan tripled and drove in Andrew Pilone and Tim Clark. Max later scored on Pat Krall's single to get the Yankee offense started. Nathan Hall started a late inning rally that was sustained by a key base hit from Andrew Scheffer. Liam Dilenschneider's catch of a towering fly to centerfield was the defensive highlight of the game.

The Cards hung in the game with some brilliant defensive plays. Colin McNabb ended the top of the second with a great double play by catching a fly for the second out and picking off the runner at the plate who had tried to tag up for a score. Ryan Knight had a great scoop at third and threw the runner out at first. Offensively, Graham Giangiulio, Chadd Catrambone, and Ryan Knight posted doubles to contribute to the Cardinals scoring. Ryan Markle and TJ Cliggett pitched for the Cards.

Tigers 17
Red Sox 8

The Tigers prevailed against the Red Sox 17-8. The Tigers bats came alive on Saturday, with big hits by Scott Schier and the Zebrowski brothers, Craig and Jeffrey. The difference-maker was the pitching rotation of Wade Mastrog, Dan Kiely and Stephen Sommar, who effectively shut down the Red Sox threats. The Sox fell behind early but battled back on big hits by Jason Pichola, James Rathgeber and Carson Lee but fell short in the end.

Phillies 8
Dodgers 7

The Dodgers played another exciting game this week, this time against the Phillies. Pitcher Devin O'Brien threw 3 shutout innings as the Dodgers' took a 4-0 lead with key hits by Brian Murphy, Tyler DiCesare, Devin (with an over-the-fence ground-rule double) and Ryan Fay. The Phillies cut the lead in the 4th to 4-2, but Pitcher Tim Rothwell was able to hold them. The Dodgers went ahead at the end of the 4th with a 6-2 lead, with a double by Tim and a single by Sean. The Phillies scored 3 runs in the top half of the 5th, but the Dodgers scored another run with a double by Tim and a single by Tyler. In the 6th, the Phillies took the lead for good. The Dodgers attempted to come back in the 6th with singles by Devin and Brian, but were unable to score the runners.

The Phillie staff of Trev Andresen, Andrew Drauschak, and Bryan Hennigan pitched on a day that the bats were the big story. Evan Hermans beat the throw at first base to get the offense started in the 4th, Hennigan squeezed out his second double of the day, and Ian Nanni sent a 2-run rocket over the fence to get the Phillies back in the game. A Kyle Jenks 5th inning blast down the third baseline spurred runs by Andresen, James Mackay, and Jenks. After Thomas Wilson scored the go-ahead run in 6th, Hennigan's pitching held off Dodger hitters to secure the win.

Phillies 3*Red Sox 4

The Red Sox ended their two game losing streak by beating a very tough Phillies team 4-3 on a beautiful Sunday afternoon. The Sox played a great defensive game anchored by strong pitching from Brendan Brady and Ryley Angeline along with Zack Greer who held the Phillies to one steal. A heads up play was made by Nelson Lucas Murphy who threw out a Phillies base runner at the plate. The Sox received hits from Ryley Angeline, Billy Shields and Zack Greer who hit a double down the third base line to bring in the winning run.

The Phillies showed a lot of heart but their efforts fell short in a tough 3 - 4 loss to the Red Sox on Sunday afternoon. Catcher James Mackay recorded two outs at the plate and the Phillies outfield of Aaron Kirk, Josh Toler, and Kyle Jenks hustled to deny extra bases on Red Sox hits.

Major League Blue Division

Thunder 7

Timber Rattlers 6

After being down 6-2 after 2-innings the Thunder scored 5-runs in the 4th and held on for a 7-6 win. Colby Hunt pitched a gem, allowing only 1 run in the final 4-innings. Johnny Seitz contributed with a hit and scored the winning run while Jake Wallace scored two runs. Dan Chisena doubled for the Thunder and also scored a run.

Mudcats 9

Sidewinders 10

The Sidewinders came from behind in a thrilling 10-9 victory over the Mudcats Friday night. The comeback rally began with a shot to right-center by Kenny Jarema in the 3rd to drive in Jeff Hardy and Jeff Quake. Game MVP, Ryan Cummings, pitched two innings letting up no runs. Ryan also hit a triple in the bottom of the 5th to bring in the winning runs. The Mudcats played a hard fought game against the Sidewinders but came up a little short. The combination of Shae Saxton, Bo Vitale, Andrew Gosselin and Jake Leclerc delivered strong pitching for the Mudcats.

Raptors 3

Sidewinders 4

The Sidewinders 4-3 victory over the Raptors was another nail biter. Nick Bowns backhanded a shot to second base then threw to first-baseman Jeff Quake who had a tremendous jump to grab the ball. In the bottom of the 4th, Ryan Cummings' double to centerfield brought Dylan Channell home. Game MVP, Kenny Jarema, made an amazing diving catch in center. Pitcher Tyler Buban made two strikeouts in the 5th to seal the Sidewinders win. The Raptors were down 4-1 going into their last at bat in the top of the 5th inning, but their rally fell just short. John Henry Suelzer had a key hit. Brad Jewett pitched 4 strong innings and Tyler McNulty pitched out of a bases-loaded jam in the final inning to keep the game close.

Timber Rattlers 5

Lynx 3

The Timber Rattlers bested the Lynx 5-3 in a Saturday morning contest. The Rattlers potent line-up started off the game with a pair of hits from the McCourt twins, Blake and Collin, the former of whom then added a second hit in the fourth inning to match the two by clean-up batter Cary Angeline, each going 2-for-2 on the day. Matt Petruccio made his post-IR debut on the mound recording seven of nine outs by strikeout over the first three innings. Relief efforts by Cary Angeline and Collin McCourt held the lead throughout with a fine defensive backhand play at second base by Eric Antich to get a key out in the home half of the fifth. For the Lynx, a second inning lead-off blast by Alec Petrillo started the assault for the home nine, followed by D.J. McCloy's walk and steal of second. Jimmy Berutti then sacrificed in a run and McCloy stole home on a passed ball to close the gap to 3 - 2 after two innings. Jake Coleman laid down a bunt in the third. Strong pitching performances by Patrick Callaghan and D.J. McCloy for the Lynx recorded 10 out of 15 outs by strikeout.

Mudcats 17
Thunder 2

On Saturday, the Mudcats had all pistons firing. The pitching, defense and bats were all hitting the mark with a 17 – 2 win against the talented Thunder. The pitching staff led by Jacob Leclerc and Scott Romich combined for 9 strikeouts during the game. Shae Saxton, Andrew Gosselin, Scott Romich, Michael Churchvara, Jacob Leclerc, Bo Vitale, Adam Stata and Jimmy Owens combined for a total of: 1 homerun, 3 doubles and 10 singles. The defensive plays were fun to watch as well. Both teams exhibited sportsmanship and had a fun afternoon of playing baseball!

After a come from behind victory Friday evening, the Thunder came out flat giving up 5 runs in the first and 5 more in the second and couldn't recover. However, the pitching was not to blame as the Thunder made many fielding mistakes that led to constant base runners for the Mudcats. Jake Wallace and Scott Hennelly pitched the bulk of the innings, while Steven Lancello and Ian Merriman teamed-up to pitch a strong final inning and a third. Jake Gray was the only Thunder player to reach base twice, and scored one of the team's two runs while driving in the other.

Minor League Division

Phillies 8
Tigers 2

JT Martin started the game off strong for the Tigers, striking out the side in the first inning. The Tigers are playing well defensively, highlighted by catcher Chris Buccellato's diving tag of a Phillies runner attempting to steal home.

The Phillies displayed strong pitching in this contest. Blake Scott pitched three innings and struck out six Tiger batters. Kyle Markle pitched the final two innings, striking out four batters to record the save. Offensively, Charles Boinske doubled to right center field to drive in three Phillies base runners. Strong defensive performances were turned in by catcher Tyler Joyce and first baseman Brandon Peterson.

Red Sox 7
Tigers 6

It was a back-and-forth battle when the Red Sox met the Tigers Monday night. The game ended with the Tigers mounting a furious two out rally with the tying run on 3rd base. In the field Brett Alan and Zach DiCesare turned a double play. Victor Christie had an outstanding effort behind the plate.

Yankees 15
Cardinals 6

The Yankees made it two in a row, downing the Cardinals 15-6 in 4 innings. Bryce Mastrog led the Yanks offensively with a late inning single to knock in the game-ending run. Jake Cerullo went 3-for-3, including a bases clearing triple into the gap. John Geiger and Cole Thomas each doubled. Tucker Rolan reached base, and scored, three times. A mix of off-speed pitches helped Andrew Griffin and Jake Truchen keep the Cardinals off balance. Cole Thomas also hurled an inning.

The Cards hung tough and took a 6-5 lead into the bottom of the third. The DiSanto boys, Brandon Harper and Stephen Zarycranski kept the Cards close, while Michael Clarke pitched an inning in relief.

Red Sox

The Red Sox pick up their first win by the score of 10-6 with strong pitching from Cummings, Bickers & Koons. Offensively, seven players got hits (Currie, Koons, Souden, Bickers, Buchanan, McGinley & McDevitt.)

Cardinals

The Cardinals showed great team effort in Saturday's game. New teammate Nick Caggiano contributed with his bat and glove! Max DiSanto and Joe Zettlemoyer did great work behind the plate--each playing 2 innings at catcher. The rest of the team showed poise at the plate and great teamwork in the field!

Rookie League

Red Sox

The Red Sox were locked in a hard fought battle against the Marlins. John--the Giant--Toler, Zachary Reigel and Speedball Sean Fanelli pitched for the Sox. Offensively, Hunter Donia got the bats cracking with the first Sox hit of the game. John T made an awesome line drive catch along with great defense that earned him the game ball. The 4th inning was highlighted by hits from Nick Calvaresi, Nick Strange and RBIs from Zachary Reigel, Alex & Sean Fanelli. Joey Acee and Mike Daulerio made strong contributions to the Sox success in this spirited game!

Braves

In their second game of the season, the Braves came out swinging against the Devil Rays. Jonathan Maino led-off the game with a hard hit single. He advanced to third on hits from Matthew Hennessey and Jack Clay. Brian "RBI" Keser drove him home to record the Braves first run. Not to be outdone in the field; Patrick Kelly scooped a rocket in the infield and fired a strike to Jack Mulcahy at first base to record the out. It was the Braves first "Web Gem" of the year! Game balls were awarded to Alexander Payton and Jacob Pirhalla for their play and sportsmanship.

Phillies

The Phillies played inspired baseball with some awesome fielding plays. Anthony Gardone had back-to-back putouts to close the 2nd inning. Jacob Dunkelberger caught a towering pop fly, converting a double play by catching a runner off base. James Strommer had major league stats at the plate with a 4-for-4 day, including 2 hits past the outfield players.

Marlins

The Marlins and Red Sox locked horns in a classic pitchers duel. For the Marlins, Devin Murray, Paul Carpenter, Randolph Ciarlone and Noah Semus did a nice job in their first pitching opportunities. Murray and Ciarlone took home game balls for their performances in the field and at bat. Ian (hitting like Mike) Schmidt pounded another double, Natalie Swanson and Jack Robey made nice fielding plays, and Michael Berutti and Jared Swanson had hits for the Marlins.

Athletics

The Athletics let their bats do the talking on Saturday with Max Doucette's towering shots to right-center and the clutch hitting of Bailey Meyer and Michael Casey. Defensively, the A's showcased their skills with Shane McEvoy's beautiful backhand stab at short and Tyler Reester's play in the field.

Dodgers

Facing "live" pitching for first time this season, the Dodgers had a difficult outing against the Phillies. Though hits were tough to come by, Sean Kelly, Danny Amicon, and Connor Kloss found holes in the defense, bringing life to the Dodger bats. Catchers Max Savidge and Dustin Fisher played well behind the plate, enduring the heat of the first steamy afternoon of the season. Game ball was given out to Sean Kelly.

Devil Rays

Playing against the Braves, Zach Robinson converted two quick outs in the field. The first out was a terrific stop and tag of the runner at 2nd. He cleanly fielded a grounder and delivered a perfect strike to the first baseman for the out.

Cole Kacmar played a solid game. At shortstop, he made two unassisted outs on grounders: one by tagging out a base runner, the other by racing to 3rd before the runner. At bat, Cole smacked a hit over the pitchers head into the outfield.

Diamondbacks

On Saturday, Jack Tormey made a rally-killing catch and Brendan McGinley hit an opposite field double, landing in fair territory, just inches from the right field line. More Diamondback news and notes are available for parents and friends at <http://www.hometeamsonline.com/team12>

Cardinals

The Cardinals and Tigers met in a rematch of the 2006 World Series. Jake Wisely and Brian Wallace each received a game ball for their hustle, hitting, and defense.
