"I run hard out of the box every time. You never know what might happen with the ball." – New York Mets Shortstop Jose Reyes

Issue 7 of the 2008 GELL Newsletter covers games played May 12 – 18 and includes summaries provided as of the issue deadline. Commissioners, please have team summaries sent to you and review before compiling them into the body of one email message and submit along with division standings to the newsletter editor (brendaandresen@msn.com) by noon each Thursday.

Major Blue players show hustle on the base paths and in the field.

Pre-game field prep and post-game clean-up are not intended to be the sole responsibility of coaches. If your team has not assigned shared responsibility for these tasks, please volunteer your help to your child's coach. It will be very much appreciated.

REMINDER: Please do your part to help keep all fields and dugouts clean. Drink bottles and food wrappers are being left behind after games. Remove all trash from dugouts after games, and ask your team and their families to make sure trash left elsewhere in the park makes it into garbage bins.

The game between the Chicago Cubs and Boston Red Sox was rained out.

Tuesday May 13th

Yankees – 10 Diamondbacks – 12

The Diamondbacks prevailed Tuesday night in a close match up with the Yankees. With Colin McCourt pitching and Dave Hendrix catching, the D'Backs kept it close through the top of the 3rd inning. Then the offense came alive with singles by Bryan Hennigan, Dave Hendrix, and Alec Petrillo and a triple by Jeff Zebrowski (3 RBI's). Two more runs scored in the 4th inning to give the D'backs a 12-4 lead. But the Yankees came out firing in the 5th and almost tied the game. Relief pitcher Bryan Hennigan stepped in and got 3 strikeouts in the 6th inning for the win.

The Yankees' furious comeback fell just short in this hard-fought Major Red battle. The Yankee offense was led by Andrew Scheffer, who drove-in four runs with a double and a single. Joe Riddle and Colin Walsh also collected two hits each and an RBI. Tim Clark contributed with a two-run single as did Chadd Catrambone, who also pitched well in relief.

*Major League Red Division (continued)Wednesday May 14th*Padres – 2*Phillies – 1

The Padres topped the Phillies 2 to 1 in a real pitcher's duel on Wednesday evening at Tantala field. Ryley Angeline pitched a complete game and held the powerful Phillies offense in check with 10 strikeouts. The Padres were held scoreless until the visitor's half of the 6th inning when Quentin McNamara, Nick Amicon, Billy Caldwell, and Ryley Angeline strung 4 hits together to score 2 runs and push the team to victory.

The Phillies played hard until the final out. Defensively, the Phillies had some great plays in the field. Michael Styer pitched 5 strong innings giving up no runs. Nathan Hall was fierce at third base and Scott Hennelly made a great play for an out. Matt Petruccio had a running, diving, and rolling catch for the third out in a tough inning. Mason Murphy scored the only run.

Saturday May 17thRed Sox – 9*Diamondbacks – 6

The Dbacks lost a tough battle to the Red Sox 9 – 6 on Saturday. The Red Sox held the lead for most of the game but the Dbacks battled back to tie the score in the 5th. The Sox scored 3 times in the 6th to take the victory. The Dbacks bats continued to stay hot with Brendan Brady, Jeff Zebrowski, Bryan Hennigan and Blake McCourt all posting multi hit games. The game was marked by tremendous defense on both sides and capped off by a triple play started with a great catch and heads up play by Jack Dillon.

Aggressive baserunning and good defensive team play combined to give the Red Sox the win against the Diamondbacks. Michael Churchvara took advantage of a passed ball opportunity to score from third in the top of the first inning and the Sox never looked back. One base hit after another kept Red Sox batters on base and crossing home plate, but it was the Sox' defensive denial of hot Dback bats that notched the win. Churchvara and Mitchell Cuzzolina patrolled the outfield with speed and accuracy, Churchvara combined with Stephen Long for a double play, and Matt Evans regularly retired Dbacks at first base.

Chicago Cubs – 1 Philadelphia Phillies – 6

The Phillies came ready to play some ball and beat the Cubs 6 to 1. Kyle O'Brien had a great heads up play by backing up an overthrow to first and firing it to second for the out. James Rathgeber pitched 5 strong innings giving up only one run and then had a great double play in the 6th inning. Scott Hennelly was the relief pitcher to end the game giving up no additional runs. James Mackay and Michael Styer each had one hit and scored two runs and Zack Greer had an RBI and scored a run.

San Diego Padres – 20 New York Yankees – 3

The Padres offensive came alive on Saturday afternoon as they defeated the Yankees 20 to 3 in the last game of the day. TJ Cliggett, Billy Caldwell, James Utley, Ryley Angeline, Cary Angeline, and Evan Hermans all had multiple hits in the victory. TJ Cliggett and James Utley provided strong pitching for the Padres.

The Yankees kept the game close through the first four innings thanks to the solid pitching of Jimmy Berutti and timely hitting by Jake Wallace, Graham Giangulio and Chadd Catrambone. In the end, the Yankees simply could not stop the mighty Padre offence. Even though the score was lopsided, the Yankees continued to battle right down to their last out.

YANKS EDGE BOSOX IN A CLASSIC BATTLE

The Yanks continued their string of 13 straight wins with a "battle to the wire win" over a tough and opportunistic Red Sox team, 13-11.

The Yanks jumped out to an early 4-1 lead after two innings with Tucker Rolen getting outs with the help of a solid Yankee defense and 4 K's of the last 4 Red Sox batters. Then the usual overpowering duo of Jake "Joba" Cerullo and Steven "Louie-zana Lightning" Koons uncharacteristically struggled with their control allowing 10 runs in three innings despite only giving up 2 hits and striking out 6. This enabled the Red Sox to climb to an 11-9 lead going into the 6th.

But the Yankee bats would have none of it, with 4 straight hits in the top of the sixth by Cerullo, Tyler Buban and Rolen gave the Yanks back their lead. Then Koons found his zone and retired the side in the bottom of the 6th to ice the win. Yankee offense stars were Cerullo with 4 hits, Koons with 3 and Buban with 3. Charlie Boinske and Andrew Griffin made contact in multiple situations when putting the bat on the ball was key to maintaining a rally.

Wednesday, May 14

Phillies 12 Tigers 10

The Phillies outscored the Tigers 12-10 in a back and forth battle. In one of their closest games of the season, the Phillies got the combined win from pitchers Blake Scott, John Geiger, Mark Dyer, and Dylan Dunkelberger. Mark Dyer, Matt McDevitt, and Alex McIntyre all had key hits and scored twice for the Phils. Blake Scott and Grey Jacobs also had big 2-RBI hits for the Phils.

Dodgers 14 - Angels 2

The Angels were defeated by the Dodgers by a score of 14-2 on Thursday, May 15. The Angels started with Andrew Kelly on the mound followed by Thomas Pearson, combining to strike out four. Ian Merriman, Chris Buccellato, Peter Cuetara, Max Castoldi, and Dhawal Soni provided solid defense in the infield. Billy McGinley led the offense with 2 hits (single and a double) driving in a run. Thomas Defant and Trevor Kleese reached base and provided solid base running.

Red Sox 11 /Phillies 2

The Red Sox bats were hot tonight! Offense yielded 5 runs which gave the Red Sox a significant lead in the game. A 2nd inning RBI led Nick Strange home. Jake Belbin's strike out pitching and Sean Fanelli's quick defense quickly closed the 2nd. Jake Belbin swiftly stole home in the 3rd. The top of the 4th inning was action packed with Evan Gegeckas' solid single and an infield homerun on Kelsey Launi's crushing hit. It continued with another super hit from Sean Young followed by Andrew Asmann's double resulting in dust clouds at all the bases. Nick Strange's awesome pitching closed the 4th with an amazing out at the mound. Phillies were able to hold the Sox back in the 5th. The game ended with an 11 - 2 win for the Red Sox! Great teamwork Red Sox!!

Wednesday, May 14

Diamondbacks 12 Orioles 11

The Orioles and D-Backs had another high scoring nail biter in their 2nd meeting his season. The first game ended in a tie, but the D-Backs held on for a 12-11 win in Wed nights rematch. The Orioles erased a 7-4 deficit with 4 runs in the top of the 4th, but the D-Backs answered with 5 to take a 12-8 lead. The Orioles had the tying run on base in the top of the last inning before Sean Kelly caught a major league fly ball to end the game. The catch capped off a great game for Sean as he had 2 hits and scored 3 runs. Dustin Fisher had 2 hits including a long double to right center field, and Dane Fisher shut down the Orioles offense with 2 scoreless innings of relief including 5 strikeouts.

The O's mounted a 5th-inning rally and placed the tying run in scoring position, but came up just a little bit short against the Diamondbacks on Wednesday.

After taking a week off, the O's bats awakened Wednesday. The offensive outburst was led by two-hit performances from Zach Block (3 RBI), Randolph Ciarlone (2 RBI), Jack Hollis (2 RBI), and Jake Maher (1 RBI). Greg Stravous and Edwards (1 RBI) joined the hit parade as well. Block and Hollis also scored on exciting plays at the plate as their slides jarred the ball from the catcher's glove.

The resilient pitching efforts of Stephen Edwards and Connor Fort kept the O's in the game, as they each pitched two strong innings.

They were supported by several fine defensive plays, including Connor Birzes' snaring a pop fly. Maher ended one Diamondbacks rally from his catcher's position as he blocked the plate and tagged a runner attempting to steal home. While playing first base, Maher was on the receiving end of two stellar fielding plays (in the same inning) by Jake Walter.

Ethan Andresen was awarded the game ball for his consistent effort and hustle. In addition to igniting the O's offense in the first inning with his steal of home, Andresen also contributed an RBI during the O's 5th inning rally and recorded a putout from his shortstop position.

Saturday, May 17

Yankees 5 Diamondbacks 13

After a delayed start due to wet field conditions, the D-Backs bats came out strong against the Yankees scoring 10 runs in the first 2 innings. The Yankees bats were productive too, scoring 5 in the first 3 innings but it was not enough to capture the comeback win. Yankees game ball went to #3 Bryce Mastrog who hit a long left field, 2 run double in the first inning and went on to get another hit and 2 walks, tallying 3 RBI's, 4 stolen bases and a perfect on-base percentage for the game.

The D-Backs took advantage of some wild Yankee pitching on Saturday and scored 10 runs in the first 2 innings to handily defeat the Yankees 13-5 and avoided a season sweep in the process. The D-Backs jumped out in the 1st inning with four hits and 5 runs, then were patient at the plate in the 2nd inning as they bunched 5 walks around only 1 hit to break open the game with another 5 runs. The D-Backs got 2 hits each from Ben Ryherd and Andrew McEntee who also scored 3 runs. Solid pitching from the trio of Andrew, Sean Kelly, and Matthew Weaver kept the Yankees from mounting any kind of a rally. The D-Backs with their 2nd straight win evened their record at 4-4-1.

Cardinals 14 Orioles 13

The Cardinals and Orioles faced off for the third time this season in a thriller for the ages. The prior two outings for these teams were very close, hard fought battles and this one shaped up to be the same. The Orioles jumped out to an early start over the Cardinals and dominated most of the game. The Cardinals Pitching staff included Zack Mcdermon, John Ferrara, David Jorgensen and Michael Giandonato. While the Orioles took a commanding lead in the early innings of 13-1, The Cardinals never gave up and highlighted the game with some great fielding by Zach Mcdermon, Bailey Meyer, Rob Warner, Jack Robey, as well as a gutsy catching performance by one of the wonder twins - Stephen Clarke. The Cardinals then put on a thrilling rally in the bottom of the fifth inning scoring 13 runs to grab the victory 14-13. The rally was highlighted by great key hits by Patrick and Stephen Clarke, John Ferrara with the game winning hit and great heads up running and stealing by the entire team including Michael "G" and Paul Trabucco. Game Balls were handed out to the entire team for a great "Team" win.

The Orioles played 5 innings of first class baseball on Saturday and left the game with their heads held high. The O's had 4 1/2 innings of solid defense and searing offense. Starting pitcher Jack Hollis and catcher Connor Fort made a dynamic duo in the first and second innings and were backed by consistently strong play in the field, including Jake Maher's run-saving grab in center field. Relief pitcher Steven Edwards and catcher Ethan Andresen paired up to lead the Orioles in the 3rd and 4th innings and executed well-orchestrated outs at home plate in each inning to keep the Cardinals scoreless.

Greg Stravous contributed an effective tag out at 3rd base in addition to reaching base in each of his 5 at-bats. From Maher and Edwards' blasts to outfield to the base running and stealing skills exhibited by each player, offensive recognition is due the entire team. Start to finish, Saturday's game clearly illustrated that the Orioles know how to play and how to win and lose graciously.

Saturday, May 5th

Red Sox 9 Diamondbacks 8

The Red Sox and Diamond Backs swapped 5 runs each in the first. Nick Strange capped it off with a solid drive to first base. Kelsey Launi displayed a nice 2nd to 3rd put out to Evan Gegeckas. As catcher, Sean Young stirred up action with a diving run-down out at 3rd base. Kelsey Launi held the D-backs scoreless in the top of the 5th. Nicholas Calvaresi stole home in the bottom of the fifth to tie the game. With Alex Fanelli on base, Sean Fanelli cracked a solid hit which landed his brother home. The Fanelli brothers closed the game with another win for the Red Sox.

Wednesday, May 7th

Red Sox 18 Orioles 3

The Red Sox' steady defense and active offense paved the way to an 18 - 3 victory over the Orioles. Nicholas Domeier started the bats swinging, followed by hits and skilled offense from Alex Fanelli, Sean Fanelli, Kelsey Launi, Evan Gegeckas, Nick Strange and Sean Young. Andrew Asmann's solid hit knocked in run 5 and 6 to set the lead in top of the 1st. Jake Belbin's pitching shut out the Orioles in the bottom of the first and Evan Gegeckas pitched another shut out in the 3rd. Graham Atlee and Nicholas Calvaresi's rapid base running stole home in the top of the 2nd and 5th. Tonight was another great victory for the Red Sox! Way to Go Team!!

Saturday, May 10

Phillies 15 Cardinals 2.

The Cardinals started out batting from behind as they gave up 6 runs in the first inning. The Cardinals tried to spark a rally inning after inning with some great key hits from Patrick Clark, Vikram Pal and Michael Giandonato who went 2 for 2 with 2 stolen bases, but the Phillies were able to shut them down from keeping a rally going. The Cardinals still showcased some fine base running, key plays in the field by Rob Warner and David Jorgenson, as well as some gritty and gutsy catching by Stephen Clarke. Bailey Meyer Received the game ball for a terrific debut at pitching including two strike outs.

Thursday, May 15: All Games Rained Out!

Saturday, May 17

Phillies vs. Red Sox

This was the first game with the boys pitching and Phillies started off with Zachary Reigel firing a strike over the plate against the Red Sox! Zach pitched 2 innings with Matthew Hennessy taking the mound in the third, followed by Bill Swisher, Charlie and Nicholas DiBella as the closer. These boys did an awesome job earning three of them game balls!! Stephen Young joined us for his first game off the injured reserved, only to be replaced by Ankur Bamezai, who unfortunately fractured his finger playing another sport... causing a contract dispute. Other highlights were Charlie "The Bat Cracker" Cliggett going 2 for 2 early on, a nice single by Chase Sanders and a beautifully fielded ground ball by Matthew thrown to Jake Gise at first for an out. But the crowd pleaser was a pop up at third caught by Tim Alves Alvado who ran down the runner from second for an unassisted double play!! These boys are having a blast!!

The Red Sox met the Phillies in the first game of kid-pitch. We were happy to be playing Baseball again. Thanks to the coaches and parents for helping get the field in playing shape!! The Phillies played a great game! They hit and fielded the ball really well and their pitching was really good too! The Red Sox continued to show how much progress we've made over the season. We had great hitting and fielding from Thomas Waite, Austin Demech and Samuel Liberati. We also debuted and showcased some awesome pitching from Grayson Weaver, James Murray and Billy Wanck. The game ball went to Tyler Reester for his great plays in the field and having a strong bat as well. Thanks to everyone for a great regular season. We look forward to seeing you in the Tournament!!

Cardinals vs Rockies

The Cardinals and Rockies played a great game on what wound up being a nice afternoon. Ben Smith got the game ball for the Cardinals for great all around play - Ben pitched a good inning, played a solid game in the infield and got a key hit. Shane McEvoy made his catching debut and caught the hard throwing Evan Dewey. Jacob Dewey and Robert Dodson had nice games in the field defensively.

The Rockies and Cardinals faced off as several excellent pitchers from both teams combined their talents to produce a low-scoring affair. However, it was the Rockies who came out on top, 4-0, with Tommy Hammett, Zach Robinson and Brian Keser tossing a 6-inning shutout. Katherine Long and Cole Kacmar contributed RBI singles and both received game balls for their efforts. Solid fielding efforts were displayed by the both teams but in the end, the Rockies prevailed!

Yankees vs Diamondbacks

It was a great day for baseball Saturday so the Yankees and D-Backs decided to play 4. Jake Stelma led a tough Yankees defense, but it was at the plate where the Yankees truly shined. Jack O'Reilly and William Christ each provided the power while Mark Jiannino earned the game ball by going 4 for 4 with 2 line drives and some nifty foot work on the base paths to avoid being hit by a batted ball.

Red Sox vs Mets

The Red Sox played this one shorthanded with only six position players, but managed to excel in both the field and at the plate. The leadoff hitter, Stephen Evans got the Red Sox off and running every inning. Garrett Robey made solid contact with the ball every plate appearance. Ben Strange made an outstanding defensive play at second base, ranging to his left and collecting a fly ball into his glove for an out. Stephen Evans and Ben Strange received game balls for their efforts.

Braves vs Phillies

The Braves & Phillies played a great game on Saturday. It was great to see all of the progress both teams made in the field as numerous put outs were made! The Phillies were led by Chase Gallagher who made some great plays in the field, had some clutching hitting as usual & won the game ball! Johnie Slugger Costaldi hit a bomb in the right field bleachers for the biggest hit of the year & Sammy the Speedster Goodstein showed off his muscles also with a blast over the wall!

Braves vs. Cubs

The Cubs demonstrated great teamwork in their game against the Braves on Tuesday. The Cubs began the game with strong hits by the whole team, especially Ryan Darlington, Nicholas Graybill and Tyler Robinson. The Cubs also played a terrific defensive game, with some great plays on the pitchers' mound by Jack Barron and Mario Billetta. The game came to a close with the game ball given to Preston Harper for his outstanding performance in the field and at the plate.

Yankees vs. Phillies

The Yankees and Phillies played a great game of long ball with many solid hits. Each team also played well in the field. Brendan O'Neill received the game ball for the Yankees with consistent, solid hitting and great fielding. The Yankees did very well at the plate with solid hitting by Alexander Hardie and Mikey Robinson while Gregory Cook, and Daniel Quiqley did very well in the field.

The Phillies visited the Yankees in what would be a solid hitting demonstration by both teams. Ian Celii stopped the grounders from the pitcher's position in the first inning while Brad Pfaff fielded a line drive hit into his glove in the second. Brad also demonstrated a nearly caught back hand catch into left field. All the Phils are hitting stronger from the tee, and Jack Barron clocked one into the outfield to mark his first double of the season. Jack celebrated his well hit ball and celebrated once again when he received the Game Ball for his solid performance. Great job Jack!

Glenmoore Eagle Little League Donation Program

There's no limit to the amount we will donate to this organization!

Like many air conditioning and heating companies Horizon Services could spend thousands of dollars on advertising in newspapers, yellow pages, television and direct mail that may not work, hoping to catch your eye and get you to do business with us. Rather than give that money to the big advertising companies, we think it makes more sense to give those dollars to you. That's why we have designed this program that will donate money in your name to this organization when you purchase a heater, air conditioner or complete home comfort system.

Here's how the program works.

1. Choose us to install your replacement heater or air conditioner and we will donate $100 for each piece of equipment in your name to this organization.
2. Replace your heating and air conditioning system, and we will donate $200.

For every heater, air conditioner or complete system we install, we will make a donation in your name to this organization.

When you call to schedule your appointment, be sure to mention the name of this organization so we can track your donation.

At Horizon Services You'll Always Get:

"Generally in the Little League, you're up against a good pitcher who throws (inconsistently). What does the coach say? Get a walk. Isn't that a beautiful way to learn to hit? For four years I stood up there looking for a walk."

Why Americans love baseball

Excerpted from an article by Tim Wendel, USA Today
"Nothing reels us in like a game in which a season is on the line. As the camera cuts from the pitcher to the hitter to the fans in the stands, we edge closer in our seats, gladly staying up well past our bedtime once again."

The Little League Pledge

The Little League Pledge was written by Peter J. McGovern, the late president of Little League Baseball, in 1954. It made its first appearance in the February 1955 "Little Leaguer" magazine. Its text has remained unchanged in the half-century since then.

The Little League Pledge was drafted after Mr. McGovern became aware that local Little League programs were reciting the U.S. Pledge of Allegiance before games. Mr. McGovern wanted to give all leagues (not just those in the United States) a pledge reflecting some of the sentiments of the Pledge of Allegiance, minus the references to the U.S., while adding the elements of sportsmanship and the desire to excel.

The text of the Little League Pledge was sent to U.S. President Dwight D. Eisenhower on Feb. 22, 1955. President Eisenhower (and every president since then) was a strong supporter of Little League.

In a response by letter to Mr. McGovern a few days later, President Eisenhower said: "Thank you for...sending me the inspiring and fine pledge that, I understand, will now be repeated at the start of the Little League Baseball games. I am always glad to hear the plans and activities of Little League."

The Little League Pledge

I trust in God
I love my country
And will respect its laws
I will play fair
And strive to win
But win or lose
I will always do my best
