Padres - 9

Diamondbacks – 0

The Dbacks ran into some great pitching against the Padres and fell 9 -0. Bryan Hennigan and Colin McCourt pitched well for the D'Backs but the bats were silent most of the night and the D'backs could not mount a rally. There were some nice defensive plays by Jack Dillon and Brendan Brady but it wasn't enough to stop the Padres.

Chicago Cubs – 6
New York Yankees – 1

The Cubs defeated the Yankees by a score of 6-1 in a game that turned on several key defensive plays by the Cubs. Liam Dilenschneider pitched 5 1/3 innings of 2 hit ball and Jake LeClerc cleaned up for the save. Zach O'Neil had 2 RBI's and Ryan Knight handled 6 chances at 3rd without an error.

The Yankees out-hit the Cubbies, but could not generate many hits with runners in scoring position. Tim Clark drove-in the lone Yankees run with a single in the second frame, while Chadd Catrambone, Jake Wallace, Andrew Scheffer and Joe Riddle generated the balance of the Yankee offense.

Boston Red Sox - 2
Philadelphia Phillies – 9

On a windy night at Hickory Park, the Phillies beat the Red Sox 9 to 2. Michael Styer and Zack Greer pitched allowing only 3 hits. Nathan Hall had an amazing catch in left field while being blinded by the sun. The team pounded out 11 hits: James Rathgeber hit his first home run for the season. James Mackay had 2 hits, 2 runs and an RBI. Matt Petrilio hit a single, a double and had 3 RBIs. Mason Murphy had a hit and 2 RBI. Zack Greer had a hit, a run and an RBI.

Red Sox batters couldn't solve Phillie pitching or get past a well-orchestrated Phillie defense and managed just 3 hits and 2 runs in the loss. Consistent Red Sox pitching was not enough to hold back the 6th inning offense poured on by a hard-hitting Phillies team. Starter Trevor Andresen allowed just 2 runs in the 1st and 3rd innings and held the Phillies scoreless in the 2nd and 4th, including a 1-2-3 inning in the 2nd and a combined 5 strikeouts in the first two innings. Reliever Steven Long allowed no Phillie runs in the 5th. Michael Churchvara and Mitchell Cuzzolina each snagged hard hits deep in the outfield for important 4th-inning outs.

Tigers 9 Giants 10

The Tigers lost a heartbreaker to the Giants Monday night by one run. The Tigers rallied in the top of the sixth inning to take the lead over the Giants but it wasn't enough to hold the Giants as they finished the game by a run. Stephen Souden pitched an awesome game for the Tigers as he managed to throw strikes throughout the game. Wade Cummings kept the Giants on their toes as he covered the plate as catcher. It was an offensive day for the Tigers as many players managed to get on base, including Adam Stata with a double, Stephen Souden with a double and a single, Wade Cummings with a double, and Joey Zettlemoyer with a single and an impressive defensive play at first base with the help of Brandon Hall. Jared Ellis and Tyler Joyce also managed to connect with the ball. The Tigers continue to improve and close the gap as the season progresses.

Phillies Angels

The Phillies outlasted the Angels in a well-played game Wednesday night. Jacob Dunkelberger, Grey Jacobs, and Evan Diewald pitched strong innings for the Phils to get the win. The Phils did most of their damage in a big, 6 run first inning with a key triple by Blake Scott. At a critical point for the Phils defense, Mark Dyer threw a strike from right-center field to Dylan Dunkelberger at third base to nail an Angel base runner.

Cardinals 2 Diamondbacks 17

The Cardinals and Diamondbacks met for the second time this season. In early innings this one was close, but ultimately the Diamondbacks strong pitching and great hitting proved to be a winning combination. The Cardinals had great pitching support with Rob Warner and Zach Mcdermon starting the first few innings, followed by Jack Robey's debut on the mound. Great fielding plays and base running by Vikram Pal and awesome catching by Bailey Meyer and David Jorgensen helped keep the Cardinals momentum despite the loss. The game ball went to Michael "G" Giandonato for great fielding, and hitting with a solid double and great base running.

The D-Backs took advantage of some wild Yankee pitching on Saturday and scored 10 runs in the first 2 innings to handily defeat the Yankees 13-5 and avoided a season sweep in the process. The D-Backs jumped out in the 1st inning with four hits and 5 runs, then were patient at the plate in the 2nd inning as they bunched 5 walks around only 1 hit to break open the game with another 5 runs.

The D-Backs got 2 hits each from Ben Ryherd and Andrew McEntee who also scored 3 runs. Solid pitching from the trio of Andrew, Sean Kelly, and Matthew Weaver kept the Yankees from mounting any kind of a rally. The D-Backs with their 2nd straight win evened their record at 4-4-1.

Yankees 4 Red Sox 8

Meeting for the third time this season, the Yankees were looking to end the Red Sox unbeaten record, especially after a tie in their last meeting. Yankees pitchers #5 Dan Scheffer and #3 Bryce Mastrog held the Red Sox to 8 runs and the Yankees batters were putting a lot of good hits in play, but the Red Sox defense made some great plays on balls that looked like sure hits. The Yankees were held to only 3 hits by #1 Will Hillegas, #2 Jake Wisely and a 2 RBI double by #4 Matt Duplicki in the second inning.

Friday, May 23

Phillies 9 Orioles 7

The Orioles fought to the end but fell just short in Friday's pre-Memorial weekend outing against the Phillies. The O's came out swinging and brought 8 batters to the plate to drive in 4 runs in the first inning. Jake Maher, Connor Fort, Greg Stravous, and Jack Hollis all recorded solid hits. Stravous' hit drove in 2 runs. Jake Walter and Maher kept the Phillie defense hopping with hits into the outfield in the 4th and 5th innings. The defensive web gem of the game belonged to Ethan Andresen's lunging grab at 3rd base to retire the Phillies at the bottom of the 5th and keep the Orioles within striking distance heading into the 6th.

Mets vs. Red Sox

The Mets dedicated the game to injured player Michael Brown who was visiting the team from the DL. Tommy Amicon had a good day at the plate with a double up the middle. Sam Lorge also played well offensively and defensively. Jake Morrow received a game ball for his outstanding play at first base. Jack Barton also received a game ball for his great play at pitcher.
