Tuesday May 6th

Yankees – 4

Red Sox - 15

The Yankees were on the wrong side of a one-sided Major Red contest vs. the Red Sox Nation. As is always the case, the Yankees continued to battle and made every attempt to get themselves back into the game. Jimmy Berutti pitched well in relief and gave the Yankees a chance. Jake Wallace continued his torrid hitting with two more hits, but it was simply not enough.

The Red Sox were hot at the plate and solid in the field in total team effort that notched a win against the Yankees. Ryan Cummings, Steven Long, Trevor Andresen, and Mitchell Cuzzolina combined to drive in first-inning runs, and Michael Churchvara's blast to right field in the second inning kept the score moving upward in the Sox's favor. Patrick Callaghan, Kenny Jarema and Andresen added solid hits in the 3rd and 4th innings. Pitcher Steven Long controlled the hill as the Sox defense held firm throughout the game.

Wednesday May 7th

Cubs – 12

Padres – 10

The Cubs came from behind in the last inning to beat the Padres by a score of 12-10. Trailing by a score of 8-6 with 2 outs in the sixth inning the Cubs rallied for 6 runs. Jon Rava started things off with a single. After Matt Munro and Ryan Schmitt each worked walks with 2 outs, Andrew Gosselin, Jake LeClerc, Andrew Pilone and Ryan Knight singled to generate the 6 runs. After shutting down the Padres 1-2-3 in the bottom of the 5th, Tyler McNulty held the Padres to 2 runs in the bottom of the 6th, helped by a great catch in right center by Zach O'Neill, for the win.

For the Padres it was their third loss in a row as they could not hold off a 6th inning surge by the Cubs. James Utley pitched 3 strong innings for the Padres in defeat while Danny Chisena provided the defensive highlights with an outstanding throw from deep left field to home plate for the assist.

Thursday May 8th

Diamondbacks – 7

Red Sox - 3

The Dbacks outlasted the Red Sox 7 -3 on Thursday night. The Dbacks staked Bryan Hennigan to an early 3-0 lead and he made the lead stand up the rest of way. David Hendrix came on in the 6th to close things down for the victory.

The Dbacks were led on offense by timely hitting from Jimmy McCarthy, Collin and Blake McCourt, Jeff Zebrowski, and Jack Dillon. The team also continued to play well in the field and closed out the game with a fine defensive play by Collin McCourt and Bryan Hennigan.

The Red Sox stood strong against a persistent Diamondbacks team and fought back to a 1-run deficit after the 4th inning but could not overcome a 5th inning Dback surge.

Starting pitcher Trevor Andresen and fine defensive fielding by Patrick Callaghan, Dylan Channell, and Michael Churchvara held the Dbacks to a single run in the 2nd inning and scoreless in the 3rd and 4th. Closer Ryan Cummings and the combined efforts of Matt Evans and Kenny Jarema kept the Sox in the game by denying the Dbacks in the 6th. Aggressive baserunning by Callaghan and Jarema got the Sox on the board in the 4th.

Saturday May 10th

Red Sox – 4

Padres - 11

The Padres recaptured some of their early season offensive power in a come from behind 11 to 4 win over the Red Sox in the first game on Saturday morning. Consistent pitching from Evan Hermans and Nick Amicon held the Red Sox offense in check while the brothers Angeline played long ball with Ryley connecting on a line drive grand slam to center field in the 3rd inning and Cary connecting on a towering 2 run homerun to left field in the home half of the 5th inning.

Red Sox starter Ryan Cummings and reliever Eric Longo kept the pitches coming against a potent Padres offense. After holding the Padres back early in the game, the Sox fell victim to two base-clearing Padres homeruns. Matt Evans' homerun kept Sox fans in their seats but ultimately wasn't enough for the win.

The Dbacks jumped on top in the first inning on consecutive hits from Colin McCourt, Blake McCourt, Jeff Zebrowski, and Alec Petrillo (RBI). The Dbacks followed up with 2 more in the 3rd with RBI hits from Brendan Brady and Jeff Zebrowski and closed out the scoring with an RBI hit from Blake McCourt in the 6th and a Grand Slam by Alec Petrillo.

Phillies – 5

Yankees – 3

The Yankees lost a close one to the mighty Phillies as a late rally was cut-short by a several fine defensive plays by the lads in red. The Yankees were led by Jimmy Berutti who launched a two-run blast over the left-field fence to jump-start the Yankee offence. Chadd Catrambone and JB Belbin pitched well and kept the Yankees close. Graham Giangiulio was two for three with a double and Colin Walsh also contributed with a late double to make the game close.

The Phillies played a strong defensive game against the Yankees. James Rathgeber was strong on the mound pitching 5 great innings. Scott Hennelly came in for the 6th inning and kept the Evil Empire at bay. Matt Petrulio scored two runs with Conor Coffey, Michael Styer and James Rathgeber all scoring one run.

Wednesday, May 7

Angels - Tigers (May 7)

The Angels lost to the Tigers 17 to 5 on Wednesday. The pitching was led by Thomas Pearson, Ian Merriman, and Trevor Kleese. The offense was led by Dalton Burt (single), Dhawal Soni (1 run scored), Andrew Kelly (single and an RBI), and Billy McGinley (single and an RBI). Strong defense was provided by Max Castoldi and Chris Buccellato in the infield, while Peter Cuetara made a great catch.

Thursday, May 8

Yankees 7 Dodgers 3

The Yankees topped the Dodgers 7-3 to move their record to 10-0. The Yanks jumped off to a big lead scoring 6 runs in the first highlighted by 2 hits by Jake Cerullo in the inning. Steven Koons kept the Dodgers at bay for the first 3 innings as the Yankee starter and the Yanks held a 6-3 lead after three. Some clutch hits by Matt Pichola and ChazMan Boinske also helped the Yanks to the early lead. Tucker Rolan moved behind the plate in the 4th inning and Cerullo to The Hill for the final three innings as the Dodgers battled valiantly trying to mount a comeback. Alex Winstead showed some aggressive baserunning during the game and Jake Truchan and Andrew Griffin held the Dodger Blue at bay with good defense

The Dodgers gave it their all, but came up short to a short-handed yet undefeated Yankees team. The Yankees got 6 runs in the first inning, but were only held to 1 additional run the rest of the game. The combined pitching staff of Brett Allan, Jeff Armstrong and DJ McCloy recorded 10 strike outs against a team known for their hard-hitting and aggressive base running. The Dodgers picked off Yankee Jake Cerullo at second base rounding for third. Great throw by Nathan Kritz to Jeff Armstrong for the tag to get the out. Our game ended too soon for the Dodgers though. With 2 outs in the top of the 6th inning, the Yankees were up by 4 runs and David Rosati who already had a triple this game was up to bat with bases loaded. The 3 and 1 count for Rosati was cut short when the runner on third tried to steal home on a passed ball. Unfortunately for the Dodgers, Tucker Rolan was too fast behind the plate at getting the ball to Pitcher Jake Cerullo for the last out of the game. I guess Cerullo had the Dodgers "pegged" after all. Great game Yanks, we'll see you in the playoffs!

These closely matched teams kept the score close all game in a low scoring defensive battle. Yankees pitchers #3 Bryce Mastrog, #2 Jake Wisely and #1 Will Hillegas did well allowing only 1 hit per inning, while both sides held the opponent to no more than 2 runs an inning. The Orioles were up 4 to 3 after 2 1/2 innings, then in the bottom of the 3rd #1 Will Hillegas had an RBI single and went on to steal 3 bases to bring the score to 5 to 4 Yankees. In the 4th inning #2 Jake Wisely had another hit rounding out his 3 for 3 performance at the plate. He also proceeded to steal 3 making it 6 to 5 Yankees. Yankees game ball went to #9 Alex Maisto who played an outstanding, heads up defensive game at 3rd base and right field always placing himself in the right spot for the play.

The Orioles' Ethan Andresen started off the game with a walk and then stole second and third. Jake Maher's blast to left field earned him a double and brought Andresen home for the first run of the game. Maher stole third and home to end the top of the first inning 2-0, Orioles. #### Devil Rays vs. Phillies

Both teams came out swinging during this hard hitting game. The Phillies own Nicholas Rosati cracked the balls high and long consistently through all innings making coaches duck. Jack Barron made some key stops and quick throws as a pitcher while Michael La Torre fielded a ground ball for a put out at first base. Nicholas Rosati fielded a long ball for a force out at second and celebrated his well swung double, earning himself a well deserved Game Ball. Great job Nicholas!

What a beautiful night for Tball! The Devil Rays hosted the Phillies and the team played a great game for an enthusiastic crowd. The team's hitting and fielding continues to improve. Owen Cannon had a solid hit up the middle and made sure he hustled around the bases. The Phillies shortstop had to field an amazing hit from Timmy Basta. Pitcher Brayden Dluhy made a remarkable stop and 1st baseman Jake Spina was ready to tag the runner. While playing pitcher Jake Spina stopped a ball that was heading to the outfield. What made this play even more impressive was that he had just been hurt the play before! His commitment to the team and his hitting and fielding contributions earned Jake the game ball this evening. Way to go Devil Rays. The crowd can't wait to see what they do against the Red Sox on Saturday.

Mets vs. Diamondbacks

The Mets continue to improve with each game. Nathan Lucas and Josephine Condon took care of the infield against a strong D'backs team as they consistently sent the ball to first base. Ashlyn Kelly and Brendan Arcara both had solid hits in a game that had many good ones. The Mets are expanding their fielding skills and throwing the ball to the closest base. Ashlyn Kelly received the game ball for her efforts. Keep it up the hard work Mets!

The Diamondbacks Christian Conner gave his all this game and got the game ball, there isn't a single place on the field that he couldn't reach, he is supper fast. Elizabeth Lu at the second base position tamed the ground balls hit to her and kept the runners in check. For our last practice of the season we had a Parents vs. Kids game. The Kids team was coached by player Gabi Adler. I must say that the parents' skills were very rusty. Diamondbacks you must get your parents out in the yard to practice, at least once a week you need them out there playing catch!!!

Tuesday, May 6

Pirates vs. Cubs

The Cubs had a great time and played an excellent game on Tuesday night! The Cubs' strength came at the plate with strong hits by Gracie McCormack, Jack Barron and Preston Harper. Mario Billetta had some amazing stops on the pitchers mound and a great day in the field. The game ball was given to Gracie McCormack for a great job at the plate!

Red Sox vs Braves

The Red Sox came out a beautiful night to face the Braves. With much improvement on everyone's part the team was looking great! Sarah Huang had a great inning in the field and Liam Sadlier kept the team running with a great hit! This week the game ball was given to Matthew Daulerio for his stellar playing on 1st base. Way to go Matthew!
